Lively purple. A refined and elegant entry on the nose with blackberry, cocoa powder, and fine oak. Medium-bodied with the charm of an elegant brandy, completed by blackberry and elderflower. Round and full on the palate with silky tannins and a long and lingering finish. Although approachable now, the wine will reward a few years of cellaring and continue to blossom for a long time.

Winemaking

Hand-sorted clusters and berries briefly and gently crushed and soaked for a short time. Controlled fermentation in stainless steel to maximize the fruit character. Aged for 8 months in stainless steel and oak barrels.
